INSIGHGTS

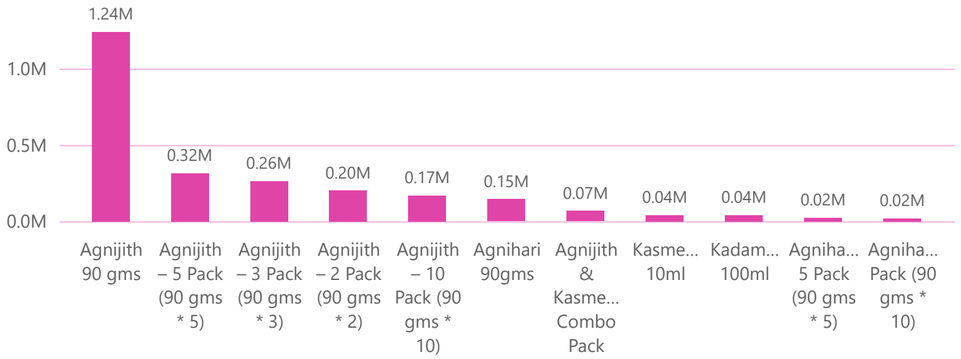

- India dominates revenue; it brings in over half of the ₹2.52M, with the US, Singapore and the UK far behind.
- Kerala leads on both measures; about 235 orders and roughly 0.36M in revenue, double any other state.
- Four states are almost level; Tamil Nadu, Maharashtra, Telangana and Karnataka each bring in 0.15M to 0.17M.
- Revenue drops sharply after the top five; Gujarat and every state below it earn under 0.06M.
- Overseas adds about 30%; the US, Singapore and the UK together contribute roughly 0.7M.
- 98.84% of orders are shipped to the same city as the billing address; only 1.16% (about 8 of 690 orders) go to a different city, so gifting to other cities is rare.

INSIGHTS

1. Revenue leader: Agnijith 90 gms brings in ₹1.24M, about half of total revenue, and sells the most units (508).
2. One standout product: Agnijith variants together make up roughly 85% of revenue.
3. Volume without value: Agnihari 90gms sells 252 units but earns only about ₹0.15M.
4. Weak performers: Kasmeerini 10ml, Kadambini 100ml and the Agnihari packs each earn ₹0.04M or less, so they add little to revenue.
5. Yearly growth: Revenue rose from ₹0.30M in 2023 to ₹0.97M in 2025, and 2026 (₹0.65M) is a partial year.

INSIGHTS

1. Untracked orders: 340 of the 690 orders (49.28%) are guest orders, so every customer figure here covers only the other half.
2. Rare repeat buying: only 21 of 323 registered customers (6.50%) ordered more than once, while 302 ordered a single time.
3. Repeaters mostly stop at two: 19 of the 21 repeat customers placed exactly two orders, and one customer alone accounts for about 7 orders.
4. Same spend per order: repeat and one-time customers average roughly ₹3.8K and ₹3.9K per order, so coming back doesn't mean spending more.
5. Retention by year: 10.00% of customers who first ordered in 2023 came back, against 6.90% for 2024 and 7.06% for 2025, while 2026 (1.61%) is too recent to compare.
